

OBITUARY

Lucile Ackerman

Lucile Forster Ackerman, 81, of Charlottesville, Va., died Dec. 14.

She was born Lucile Forster in Philadelphia and lived most of her life in Hackettstown, moving to Virginia in 1967.

She was employed as a sales representative at Plate Jewelers in Hackettstown and was a member of the First Presbyterian Church here.

Her husband, Herbert W. Ackerman, died in 1988.

She is survived by two daughters, Judith A. Spangler of Charlottesville and Linda Jane Thompson of Olathe, Kansas, and a son-in-law, Stan Thompson of Olathe; a son, George Herbert Ackerman of Palmyra, Va., and a daughter-in-law, Betty Ackerman of Palmyra; a nephew, Walter Ward of Hackettstown; a niece, Diane Sides of Lake Hopatcong; seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; and many good friends in the Hackettstown vicinity.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that any memorial donations be made to the Hospice of the Piedmont, 1290 Seminole Trail, Charlottesville, Va.; or the Alzheimer's Association.

Graveside services were held, followed by a celebration of life service at the First Presbyterian Church in Charlottesville.
