

OBITUARY

Sheila Watson Amrich, 64, of Hackettstown, N.J., passed away on August 19, 2018, after battling cancer for over seven years. A visitation will be held Saturday, August 25 at William J. Leber Funeral Home, 15 Furnace Rd. in Chester, N.J., from 2 to 4 p.m., with a memorial service to follow immediately at 4 p.m. Sheila's family will host a reception at the Taphouse Grille, 1930 State Rte. 57, Hackettstown, at 6 p.m. following the service. Sheila was born in Glasgow, Scotland, to Robert Watson and Jean Munro Watson on Jan. 6, 1954. She graduated from Linden High School in 1972, then went on to earn a degree in home economics from the College of Saint Elizabeth in 1976. Sheila worked for many years as a registered dietician, specializing in helping diabetic patients. She later enjoyed working as a substitute teacher, and had a particular fondness for working with special education students. Sheila loved cooking, throwing parties, and spending time with her family and her dog, Jade. Everyone who met Sheila knew her to be an incredibly warm and positive person with a boundless enthusiasm for life. Sheila is survived by her husband, George Amrich; son, Robert Amrich, and daughter-in-law, Meredith Meisenheimer; brothers-in-law, Steven O'Connell, and John Amrich, and her sister-in-law, Elsie Mangeri. She is also survived by her niece and nephews: David O'Connell and his wife, Lexie Adorno, and their children, Liam, Kate, and Eiley; Christopher Amrich and his wife, Megan Amrich, and their son, James; John Mangeri and his fiancée, Elizabeth Easton, and Lauren Mangeri. Sheila was predeceased by her nephew, Matthew O'Connell; sister, Eleanor O'Connell; sister-in-law, Nancy Amrich, and brother-in-law, Michael Mangeri. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to JDRF (Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation) or to the American Cancer Society.

The Star-Ledger: August 22, 2018

NAME: Amrich, Sheila (nee Watson)

DATE OF DEATH: August 19, 2018