

OBITUARY

Charles W. "Mark" Anthony

Services were held for Charles William "Mark" Anthony, 71, of Springfield, Ohio, who died March 26 at his home.

Born in Kentucky, he lived in Hackettstown for 14 years, until last January.

He was marketing manager of Dynapac Industries in Hackettstown until his retirement. Earlier he had been employed by Buffalo Springfield Co. and the Ellis-McClure and P.E. West automobile dealerships in Springfield.

He attended Northminster Presbyterian Church and was a member of Anthony Lodge #455, F&AM.

Mr. Anthony is survived by his wife, L. Estelle; one daughter, Laura Jane Brunk of Springfield; one son, Mark Duzer Anthony of Springfield; one sister, Mary Kay Murray of Louisville, Ky.; two brothers, James H. of Madisonville, Ky., and Kenneth R. of Beaumont, Texas; two grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Interment was in Ferncliff Cemetery in Ohio. The Littleton Funeral Home of Ohio was in charge of arrangements.

The Star-Gazette: April 11, 1991

NAME: Charles W. "Mark" Anthony

DATE OF DEATH: March 29, 1991