

Apgar: Former Fire Chief

HACKETTSTOWN — Floyd E. Apgar, 82, 21 East Prospect Avenue, died yesterday at his home.

Services will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at the Cochran Funeral Home here. Interment will be at the Union Cemetery.

Born March 3, 1890 in Anthony, he was the son of Edgar Apgar and Alice (Castner) Apgar. He had been a resident of Hackettstown for 52 years.

Mr. Apgar was employed forty years with American Sawmill & Machinery Company and for five years as a machinist with Bergen Machine & Tool Company here before his retirement eleven years ago.

FLOYD E. APGAR

He was past chief of the Hackettstown Fire Department, 1941-42, a life member of Vigilant Hook & Ladder Company, and a member of Trinity Methodist Church.

Survivors include his wife Gladys (Saunders), a son Donald of Belvidere, a daughter Lois (Mrs. James Woods, Jr.) of Newton and two grandchildren.

Star-Gazette,
August 16, 1973

OBITUARY: Floyd E. Apgar
Date of Death,
August 15, 1973