

Death of J. W. Apgar.

Jonathan Wood Apgar, sixty-seven years old, president of the Elizabeth Hardware Co., died last Wednesday at his home, No. 4 Hamilton avenue, Cranford, from a complication of diseases. He was born in Hackettstown, the son of the late George W., and Phoebe Mucklow Apgar. Mr. Apgar lived for thirty years in Elizabeth and moved to Cranford a year and a half ago, when his health began to fail. He was a member of the Elizabeth Chamber of Commerce, the Elizabeth Club and the Down Town Club. Beside his wife, Maryetta Apgar, three daughters, Mrs. Helen Griggs, Mrs. Clara Bonnell, and Marguerite at home, and two sons, George W. and Jonathan Woodruff, Jr., of Cranford, and two sisters, Mrs. Harriet M. Megill and Mrs. C. N. Wade of this town, survive. Funeral services were held last Friday night at his home in Cranford. Interment was in Union Cemetery, Hackettstown.

The Hackettstown Gazette: March 5, 1926

NAME: Jonathan Wood Apgar

DATE OF DEATH: March 3, 1926