

THOMAS A ASHLEY.

A funeral service for Thomas A. Ashley of 125 West Washington Avenue, Washington, a native of Hackettstown, was held Saturday afternoon at the Ford Funeral Home, Washington. He died Wednesday night, February 21, 1968, in Warren Hospital, Phillipsburg, at the age of 73 after an illness of several months.

Mr. Ashley was employed as an automobile salesman by William G. Vey & Sons, Hackettstown. During World War II, he was employed in the Cameron Pump Division of Ingersoll Rand Co., Phillipsburg, retiring in 1960.

Born here, he was the son of the late William H. and Tillie Shaw Ashley. He lived here untill 1932 when he moved to Washington. He was a graduate of Centenary Collegiate Institute, Hackettstown, and Worcester Academy, Worcester, Mass.

He attended the First Presbyterian Church, Washington. Mr. Ashley and his wife Lillian Mae Nunn, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last July.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Virginia High of Milltown; a sister, Mrs. Bess Kilpatrick of Hackettstown, and a granddaughter.

The Rev. J. Richard Hanna of Washington Presbyterian Church officiated at the service. Interment was in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

From,
The Hackettstown Gazette,
Dated, February 29, 1968.
Catalog No. 6297.175.11.