

OBITUARY

Dianne Atkinson

Dianne Atkinson, 56, died Thursday, Dec. 28 at North Broward Medical Center in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Born in Nashville, she moved to Hackettstown in 1972 with her husband, Harold Sandrue, where they raised their two children.

She worked at M&M/Mars in central filing from 1983-86 until moving to Pensacola, Fla., with her second husband, Bob Reese.

She was an active member of Trinity United Methodist Church in Hackettstown, and donated her time to the church's thrift shop while she lived in Hackettstown before moving to Tampa in 1996 with her husband, Dr. Lowell Atkinson.

Survivors include her mother, Wylodene Bell, a sister, Lynda Bell; her children, Darrell Sandrue and Kari Castellano; her grandchildren, Ethan and Claire Sandrue, Michael and Alexis Castellano; and her husband, Dr. Lowell Atkinson.

A memorial service was held at Trinity United Methodist Church, Hackettstown.

The Star-Gazette: February 1, 2001

NAME: Atkinson, Dianne

DATE OF DEATH: December 28, 2000