

OBITUARY

Wilhelmina Atkinson

HOLIDAY, Fla. — Wilhelmina Atkinson, 78, died April 17 at Helen Ellis Memorial Hospital, Tarpon Springs, Fla.

She was born in Argentina and lived in Hackettstown from 1971 to 1976. She moved to Holiday, Fla., in 1985.

Her husband, Lowell M., is a retired Methodist minister who served at the Hackettstown United Methodist Church from 1971 to 1976.

Mrs. Atkinson was a secretary at Edgewood Arsenal, N.Y., the Hackensack Y-For-All, the Tenafly school system, and for Hackettstown attorney Joseph Houston.

She was a member of the F.U.M.C. in Tarpon Springs.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a daughter, Lynne Van Es of Camano Island, Wash.; two brothers, Maurice Blaken of Glassboro and Louis Blaken of Matawan; and three sisters, Henriette Dayka of Toms River, Cecilia Dalhausser of

---

The Star-Gazette: April 30, 1992

NAME: Wilhelmina Atkinson

DATE OF DEATH: April 17, 1992