

OBITUARY

Mrs Robt. Ayers, wife of Robt. Ayers, Jr., died on Sunday evening of last week after a continued illness of nearly two years. The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon. There was a large concourse of friends all anxious to pay the last tribute of respect to the departed. Mrs. Ayers was a lady of remarkable cheerfulness, having for all a pleasant smile or a cheerful word, and all who knew her could not help but respect her. It was a pleasure to her to make others happy, and in so doing she obtained a blessing for herself. Her remains were interred in the Danville burying ground. We extend to Mr. Ayers and family our earnest sympathy for him in his sad bereavement.

TONEY.

The Hackettstown Gazette

NAME: Mrs. Robert Ayers Jr.

DATE OF DEATH: 9 March, 1883