

OBITUARY

ROSCOE C. AYERS

HACKETTSTOWN — Roscoe C. Ayers, 88, of 108 Franklin St., Hackettstown, died Wednesday of last week, Dec. 9, at the Mary Hart Nursing Home, in Succasunna, after a long illness. He was a past chief of the Hackettstown Fire Department.

Born in Chatham, he was a son of the late George W. and Lenwilla Wire Ayers. He lived in Hackettstown 78 years.

Mr. Ayers was a retired house painter.

His wife, the former Linda Hoffman, died five years ago.

His nearest relatives are two nephews.

He was a member of the Vigilant Hook & Ladder Co. 1, Exempt Firemen's Association of the State of New Jersey, the New Jersey Firemen's Association, Hackettstown Firemen's Relief Association, and First Presbyterian Church in Hackettstown.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning at the Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown.

The Washington Star

NAME: Roscoe C. Ayers

DATE OF DEATH: 17 December, 1964