

OBITUARY

Michael Babitsky

A Requiem Divine Liturgy was said Oct. 16 at St. Nicholas Ukrainian Catholic Church for Michael Babitsky, 80, of Hackettstown. He died Oct. 12 at Hilltop Nursing Home, Pine Brook, after a long illness.

He was born in Carteret and lived there, in Newark and in Irvington, before moving to Hackettstown in 1987.

He was the owner of Mike's Candy Store in Newark for 20 years, retiring in 1976.

He was a member of St. John's Ukrainian Catholic Church, Newark.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Derewesky; two daughters, Carol Chakiris and Patricia Brophy, both of Flanders; a brother, John, of South Holland, Ill.; five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Interment was in Gate of Heaven Cemetery, East Hanover.

The Scala Memorial Home of Hackettstown was in charge of arrangements.

Star-Gazette: 14 October 1989

The Express-Times:

The Warren Reporter:

NAME: Michael Babitsky

DATE OF DEATH: 12 October, 1989