

OBITUARY

Lloyd C. Bailey

Lloyd C. Bailey, 68, of Hackettstown died Jan. 12, at Hackettstown Community Hospital in Hackettstown, after a short illness.

Born in Netcong he lived in Budd Lake before moving to Hackettstown 34 years ago.

He was employed as a Conductor with the former Erie-Lackawanna Railroad and New Jersey Transit out of Dover for 54 years before retiring in 1994.

He served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War and served many years with the National Guard.

Survivors include his wife, Doris Bailey; three daughters, Jane Bailey of Hackettstown, Sandra Pulido of West New York, and Cindy Gugliandolo of Hackettstown; and one granddaughter.

Services were at Morgan Funeral Home, Netcong.

Interment was in Stanhope Union Cemetery.

The Star Gazette: January 21, 1999

NAME: Lloyd C. Bailey

DATE OF DEATH: January 12, 1999