

Gertrude Bakker

HACKETTSTOWN — Gertrude D. Bakker, 96, died Jan. 1 at the House of the Good Shepherd.

Born March 5, 1901, in Heldenskip, Friesland, Holland, she was a daughter of the late Douwer and Tryntje Dykstra.

She was a homemaker and a dairy farmer.

She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Hackettstown.

Her husband, Samuel R. Bakker, died in 1962. A son, David, died in 1985; and two daughters, Trinjtje and Ann Sharland, predeceased her.

She is survived by a son, Raymond of San Jose, Calif; four daughters, Tena Harriman, Cornelia Groover and Shirley Baldwin, all of Hackettstown, and Rena Gulick of Budd Lake; a sister, Rieme DeWit of Holland; 25 grandchildren; 52 great-grandchildren and 11 great-great-grandchildren.

Services were held from the Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown. Burial was in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

Memorial donations may be made to the charity of one's choice.

Star Gazette

January 15, 1998

Gertrude Bakker

Date of Death

January 1, 1998

Gertrude D. Bakker

HACKETTSTOWN — Gertrude D. Bakker, 96, died on Jan. 1 at House of the Good Shepherd in Hackettstown.

Born on March 5, 1901, in Heldenskip, Friesland, Holland, she was the daughter of the late Douwer B. and Tryntje Post Dykstra. She lived in Hackettstown most of her life, coming from Holland.

She was a homemaker and a dairy farmer, and a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Hackettstown.

Her husband, Samuel R. Bakker died in 1962.

Services were held at the funeral home. Cochran Funeral Home in Hackettstown was in charge of arrangements. Burial was at Hackettstown Union Cemetery, Hackettstown.

Donations can be made to charity of one's choice.

Easton Express Times

January 3, 1998

Gertrude Bakker

Date of Death

January 1, 1998