Gladys F. Baldwin

HACKETTSTOWN — Gladys F. Baldwin of Liberty House died at home on Saturday. She was 79.

She moved to Hackettstown five years ago from Denville. She also had lived in Bloomfield for several years.

She was a Presbyterian.

She is survived by two daughters, Beverly Duda, Denville, and Carolyn George, Hackettstown; a sister, Mildred Van Patten, Albany, N.Y.; six grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

Her husband, Harold, died in 1972.

Arrangements are by Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St.