

OBITUARY

Mary E. Baldwin, widow of the late William Baldwin, died at her home in North Hackettstown last Sunday. She had been a sufferer from dropsy for some time past. She had been making extensive improvements on her property in that part of town, and had just had just moved in her new house. Funeral services were held at her late residence Tuesday evening at seven o'clock and the body was taken to Cypress Hills Cemetery for burial Wednesday morning. She is survived by two children, Mrs. Josephine D. McNary and Matthew H. Stewart.

The Warren Republican: June 2, 1893

NAME: Baldwin, Mary E.

DATE OF DEATH: May 28, 1893