

OBITUARY

Martha Barusefski 82, of Jessup, died Wednesday (April 1, 2009) at Mercy Hospital. She was the widow of Robert Barusefski, who died October 13, 1989.

Born in Peckville, she was a graduate of Scott High School and worked in the local garment industry.

She resided in Hackettstown, N.J., for many years but spent the past 35 years in Jessup. She was a member of Holy Ghost Byzantine Catholic Church in Jessup.

She was a loving and generous wife, mother and grandmother who loved her family and her church. She will be greatly missed by everyone.

She is survived by two sons, Robert Barusefski, husband of Susan, Haymarket, Va., and the Very Rev. Ronald C. Barusefski, pastor of Ss. Peter and Paul Byzantine Catholic Church, Minersville, and St. Mary's Byzantine Catholic Church, Saint Clair; a daughter, Leona Barusefski, Jessup; two grandchildren, Robert and Jamie Barusefski; and nieces and nephews. She was the last of her generation and was preceded in death by all of her brothers and sisters.

The funeral will be held at 9:30 a.m. Saturday from Louis M. Margotta Funeral Home, 511 Church St., Jessup, with Requiem Divine Liturgy at 10 a.m. at Holy Ghost Byzantine Catholic Church, Jessup. Interment will be in Holy Ghost Cemetery, Jessup. Friends may call at the funeral home from 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. Friday.
