

Ernest Batson

Ernest Batson, 69, of Lozier Road, died Thursday at home after a long illness. He was 69.

Mr. Batson was born in Stanhope. He was a former resident of Great Meadows and Netcong. For the past six years he had lived in Budd Lake.

He was retired as a truck driver for the N.J. State Highway Department.

He was a member of St. Peter and St. Paul's Church, Great Meadows.

Mr. Batson is survived by his wife, Elsie; two daughters, Mrs. Elaine Allen of Mount Rose, Pa., and Mrs. Robert Semonski of Hawley, Pa.; six sisters, Mrs. Edith Scudder of Budd Lake, Mrs. Zada Nicholas of Succasunna, Mrs. Lelah Force of Port Morris, Mrs. Evelyn Griffin of Netcong, Mrs. Irma Stickle of Berkshire Valley, and Mrs. Doris Chapman of Port Morris; two brothers, Leonard Batson of Wharton and Melville Batson of Dover; 12 grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

Interment was at Pequest Cemetery in Great Meadows. The Morgan Funeral Home, 31-33 Main St., Netcong, handled the arrangements.

The Forum,
November 8, 1978.

OBITUARY:

Ernest Batson,

Date of Death, November 2, 1978