

Jack H. Beattie, Veterinarian

HACKETTSTOWN — Jack H. Beattie, a longtime local veterinarian, died Tuesday at Morristown Memorial Hospital after a long illness.

Dr. Beattie was born in Guelph, Ontario, Canada. He had an office on Route 46 since 1948. He was a 1941 graduate of the University of Toronto Veterinary College.

He was a member of the Panther Valley Ecumencial Ministry, Independence Lodge 42 of the Free and Accepted Maçons, and the Northwest Jersey, the New Jersey and the American veterinarian medical associations.

He is survived by his wife, Paula; a son, James, Liverpool, N.Y.; a daughter, Margrethe, Boca Raton, Fla.; a sister, Elizabeth Withers, San Jose, Calif.; and a granddaughter.

The service will be private.

Daily Record,
May 15, 1980

OBITUARY: Jack H. Beattie
Date of Death,
May 13, 1980