

OBITUARY

Franklin T. Beaty, 93, of Washington, formerly of Hackettstown, passed away on Friday, February 4, 2011 at Warren Hospital surrounded by his family. Born: March 16, 1917 in Hackettstown, he was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Enos and Elizabeth nee Thomas Beaty. Personal: Franklin was a graduate of Hackettstown High school. He worked as an electrician for American Can, and was an avid bicyclist. He was a World War II Navy veteran. Memberships: He was a member of VFW, the Canal Society, the Historical Society, the American Civil Liberty Union, the Sierra Club, the Nature Conservatory, the World Wildlife, GEAR, and was affiliated with the Alzheimer's Association. Survivors: Three daughters: Barbara Carter of Phillipsburg, Murial Beaty, and Mary Cecilia Rush and husband Rueben, all of Washington; three grandchildren: Carol Lible and husband Charlie of Belvidere, Marie Greenwood of Hanover Township, and Michael Marks of Phillipsburg; six great-grandchildren: Holly Ann Greenwood, Charles Joseph, Christopher Randall, Kevin Marks, Mandi, and Joey. He was predeceased by his wife, Muriel McColloch in 1997; two brothers: Warren and Robert Beaty; sister Lillian Beaty; and grandson Wayne Marks. Services: Private funeral services will be held at the convenience of the family. Memorials: In Franklin's memory, memorial donations may be made to: Alzheimer's Association, 225 N. Michigan Ave., Fl. 17, Chicago, IL 60601 or World Wildlife Fund, 1250 Twenty-Fourth Street, N.W., P.O. Box 97180, Washington, DC 20090-7180. The DeVoe Funeral Service, Washington, NJ, has been entrusted with his arrangements. Online condolences may be expressed at www.devoefuneral.com

The Express-Times: February 6, 2011

NAME: Beatty, Franklin T.

DATE OF DEATH: February 4, 2011