

Harry C. Beers

Harry C. "Boggy" Beers, 68, of 116 Mountain Ave., Hackettstown N.J., died Tuesday in his home.

He was a sales clerk at Kostenbader's Liquor Store, Hackettstown, for 30 years until retiring three years ago.

Born Sept. 24, 1915, in Hope, N.J., he was a son of the late Otto and J. Em Lusk Beers. He lived in Hackettstown most of his life.

Mr. Beers was a member of the Moose Lodge and Blue Ridge American Legion Post 164, both of Hackettstown. He served with the U.S. Army during World War II.

Surviving are his wife, the former Anna Hendershot; two sons, John of Port Murray, and Ronald of Washington, N.J.; a daughter, Mrs. Joan Volkers, Hackettstown; a brother, Hobart of Washington, and six grandchildren.

Services will be held at 11 a.m. Friday in the Scala Memorial Home, Hackettstown. Interment will be in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

Easton Express
September 12, 1984.

OBITUARY:
Harry C. Beers.
Date of Death
September 4, 1984.