

CHARLES BERRYHACKETTSTOWN —

Funeral services were held Saturday for Charles Berry, 81, of 803 East Baldwin St., who died July 15 at Heath Village.

Born in Cypress Inn, Tenn., he lived in Staten Island before moving here in 1959.

He was a retired accountant and had been employed by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, New York City.

Berry was an Army veteran of both world wars. He was a member of St. James Episcopal Church and Collenwood Lodge 702 F&AM, Collinwood, Tenn.

Surviving are his widow, Grace; two sons, Charles W. of Golden, Colo., and Barkley H. of Wappingers Falls, N.Y.; a brother, Irvin, Woodstock, Ill.; and four grandchildren.

Services were conducted in the Cochran Funeral Home.

Star-Gazette,
July 24, 1975

OBITUARY: Charles Berry
Date of Death,
July 15, 1975