

MRS. MAY ASHLEY BLAKE.

Mrs. May Ashley Blake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ashley of Hackettstown, and widow of Clarence Blake, well known Newark attorney, died at her Harrison home last Thursday.

Mrs. Blake was born in Hackettstown and spent most of her life here; her life was one of service to others. She was a woman of rare charm; and next week, at our request, a tribute to her will appear in these columns, written by one who has known her since girlhood. But few people of Hackettstown really know what May Ashley did for many many families in this community, years back, when those families needed a friend.

Through all the years she was just May Ashley, a plain, wholesome, winsome character; a woman of unusual strength, industry and plain goodness.

Hackettstown Gazette
February 22, 1929.

Folder No. 85