

OBITUARY

MORRIS M. BLAMEY

Morris M. Blamey, 78, of Montville Township, Morris County, formerly of Hackettstown, died Dec. 23 in the Grey-stone Park State Hospital.

A native of Belleville, he lived in Hackettstown previous to 1957 when he moved to Morris County.

Mr. Blamey was a retired laborer. He served with the 309th Field Artillery in France during World War I. His wife, the former Fannie Bennett Tucker, died in 1964.

He was a charter member and first commander of Bloomfield, Post 117, VFW. He was a member of Great Meadows Memorial Post 7126, VFW, and Blue Ridge Post 164, American Legion, Hackettstown.

Survivors include two stepsons, Franklin B. Tucker, West Caldwell, and Robert C. Tucker, Owensboro, Ky., and two stepdaughters, Mrs. Haze T. Shown, Owensboro, and Mrs. Norma T. Katz, Williamsburg, Va.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown.

The Washington Star: 6 January, 1966

NAME: Morris M. Blamey

DATE OF DEATH: 23 December, 1965