

Obituaries

RICHARD R. BLAU

Services were held yesterday afternoon at the Cochran Funeral Home for Richard R. Blau, 58, of Rockport, who died suddenly on Sunday, January 12, 1958, at his home of a heart attack. The Rev. August J. Kling of the First Presbyterian Church, Hackettstown, officiated. Interment was in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

Mr. Blau was born in Mt. Vernon, N. Y., on October 2, 1899, a son of the late August W. and Mary Koehler Blau. He had lived at Rockport for 44 years and was a farmer during that time. During the last year Mr. Blau was employed as a night watchman at Centenary College for Women, Hackettstown.

A member of the Mansfield Second Presbyterian Church, Rockport, Mr. Blau was an elder, trustee and was church treasurer for more than 30 years. He was also a member of the Washington Grange.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Mabel Pascoe Blau; his stepmother, Mrs. August W. Blau, at home; a daughter, Mrs. Leo Cuff, and two grandchildren, Michael Leo and Richard Lynn Cuff, of Rockport Road.

Pallbearers were Lyman B. Dellicker, Lyman D. Gulick, David Wydner, Frank D. Nunn, George Thomas and Raymond O'Reilly.

The Hackettstown Rescue Squad answered a call to the home when Mr. Blau suffered his fatal attack.

Hackettstown Gazette
January 16, 1958

OBITUARY: Richard R. Blau
Date of Death,
January 12, 1958