

OBITUARY

Township.

Juriy worked for the Asbury Graphite mill in Asbury.

He is survived by his loving wife, Shawnee; his caring parents, Oleksiy Bourenko of Russia and Natalia Fischer and her husband Joseph of Washington; both his maternal and paternal grandparents of Ukraine; his dear friend Jesse Harvey and the Harvey family of Mansfield; an aunt, Irina Bartkiv; an uncle, Igor Jodovanets; and many friends and relatives of both the United States and Ukraine.

Juriy was a very talented and dedicated artist, never without his sketchbook and looking forward to a career as a tattoo artist. Musically talented, he loved playing the guitar and the accordion. Juriy loved animals, especially horses.

Visitation was held at Warren Hills Memorial Home and services were held at the Orthodox Church of the St. Gregory Palamas, Glen Gardner. Burial was at Washington Cemetery.

Donations may be made to Friends Farm Sanctuary, P.O. Box 150, Watkins Glen, N.Y. 14891 or the Pit Bull Rescue Central, P.O. Box 335, Fulton, Missouri 65251.

Funeral arrangements were entrusted to the Warren Hills Memorial Home, Washington.

To send an on-line condolence, visit www.warrenhillsmemorial-home.com.

Juriy Bourenko

Juriy Bourenko, 24, passed away Friday, Feb. 27, 2009 as a result of injuries sustained from a motorcycle accident.

He was a resident of Hackettstown and had lived in Phillipsburg, Asbury and the Ukraine. He was born Feb. 1, 1985 in Kalush, Ukraine, the son of Oleksiy Bourenko of Russia and Natalia Fischer of Washington

~~The Express-Times:~~

The Warren Reporter: Mar. 20, 2009

NAME: Juriy Bourenko

DATE OF DEATH: 27, February 2009