

FUNERAL OF MRS. F. A. APPAR

Funeral of the late Mrs. F. A. Appar, 8-10th WHITEHOUSE, Jan. 18. The funeral of Mrs. Elmina Hester Appar, sixty-two years old, wife of Dr. Francis Asbury Appar, will be held in the Methodist Episcopal Church at New Germantown on Wednesday at 12 o'clock. Rev. Harry B. Hood, the pastor, will officiate, assisted by Rev. Dr. John D. Smith, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Lambington.
 Burial will be on Thursday at Hackettstown in the old family plot in Riverside Cemetery. Mrs. Appar died at her home at New Germantown, where her husband has been a practicing physician for the past thirty-seven years, on Friday after an illness of just a week from pneumonia. She was born in Hackettstown and was a daughter of Simon B. Fisher, who died there two years ago. She married Dr. Appar February 2, 1877, and besides her husband she leaves a daughter, Miss Ida Mabel Appar, and two sisters, Mrs. Carrie, wife of Rev. William E. Harvey, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Tipton, Pa., and Mrs.
 Ida M., wife of Michael B. Bowers of Hackettstown. She was a member of the church at New Germantown and was one of its most loyal workers. She also took an active part in temperance work and corresponding secretary of the W. C.
 T. U. of her home.

GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bowers Celebrate Occasion at Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael B. Bowers, of 124 Willow Grove street, Hackettstown, were very much surprised Monday evening when their family came to the backdoor and wished them many happy returns of the day, the occasion being their golden wedding anniversary.

Fifty years ago Mr. Bowers took unto himself a wife at a very pretty wedding at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Fisher, of Schooleys Mountain.

The bride was Miss Ida A. Fisher, who was one of the most beautiful young ladies in her locality. They were married by the Rev. Edson W.
 Burr, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at that time, and they started housekeeping at once and have resided on Willow Grove street for a half century, enjoying their domestic happiness.

The party was a complete surprise and the honored couple passed a very happy evening surrounded by their family, and Mrs. Wilbur Bowers' mother, Mrs. George J. Tinney, of Paterson.

The gold cake decorated in gold was placed in the center of the table which was decorated with yellow roses and snapdragons, gave a feast which added much to the enjoyable affair.

May they celebrate many more anniversaries of their wedding day together.

In Loving Memory
