

MRS. EATHA BRADER

HACKETTSTOWN — Mrs. Eatha Brader of 200 Hamilton Drive died March 12 at Newton Memorial Hospital after a long illness. She was 79.

Born July 6, 1894 in Oxford, Mrs. Brader was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathan McAfee. She moved to Hackettstown 41 years ago from Oxford.

Services were conducted Friday morning at the Metzler-Scala Memorial by the Rev. Howard Voelker of Hope Methodist Church. Interment was in the Moravian Cemetery, Hope.

Survivors are her widower, Lester; two daughters, Mrs. Rose Latourette of Belvidere and Mrs. Virginia Robbins of Newton; a son, Lester E., Hackettstown; 13 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Meta Benjamin of Easton, Pa., Mrs. Allie Stack of Silver Lake and Mrs. Erma Brown of Union Beach.

Star-Gazette,
March 21, 1974

OBITUARY: Eatha Brader
Date of death,
March 12, 1974