

OBITUARY

MRS. EMMA W. BRANT

Mrs. Emma W. Brant, 59 years old, widow of Frank Brant, who has been residing with her sister, Mrs. Archie Lance, on Youmans Avenue, Washington, died Monday, after an illness of many months. The late Mr. and Mrs. Brant were formerly of Newark and Hackettstown.

Besides the sister with whom she resided at the time of death, Mrs. Brant is survived by another sister, Mrs. A. H. Barker, of Hackettstown, and three brothers, John A. Case, of Hackettstown, and Theodore H. Case and George R. Case, both of Phillipsburg. She was a member of the Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church of Newark, and was also a charter member of the Good Intent Council, Sons and Daughters of Liberty, at Hackettstown.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home in Youmans Avenue, Washington, with the Rev. R. William Aten, pastor emeritus, in charge. Burial was made in the Hackettstown Union Cemetery.
