

OBITUARY

Bob Brem, 62, of Macon, Mo., formerly of Hackettstown, N.J., the father of two Peoria residents, passed away Thursday, November 23, 2006, at the Samaritan Hospital in Macon, Mo. Bob was born July 17, 1944, in Chicago, Ill., the son of Clifford and Minnie Behrman Brem. He served his country in the United States Marine Corps Reserves and was a member of the Roman Catholic Church.

Bob was employed by Ricoh Corporation as a regional sales director for many years. He enjoyed Cardinals baseball, Chicago Bears football and was an avid golfer. He will be missed by all that knew and loved him.

Bob is survived by his wife, Donna Elam Brem of Macon, Mo.; one son, Michael Brem and his wife Julie of Peoria, Ill.; four daughters, Paige Daniels and her husband Rich of Thousand Oaks, Calif., Cari Noonan and her husband Kelly of Falmouth, Mass., Stacey Reynolds and her husband Dan of Peoria, Ill., and Christine Elliott of Macon, Mo.; eight grandchildren, Zachary, Kyan, Alyssa, Lauren, Benjamin, Grace, Jack and Emily; and his mother-in-law, Naomi Elam of Macon, Mo.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one son, Stephen Elliott; and one sister, Madelyn Bury. A Mass of Christian burial will be at 11 a.m. today, Nov. 28, 2006, at the Immaculate Conception Church in Macon, Mo., with Father Mike Murphy officiating. Burial with full military honors will be in the St. Mary's Cemetery in Macon, Mo. Visitation was from 5 to 7 p.m. Monday at the Greening-Eagan-Hayes Funeral Home in Macon, Mo., with a vigil service at 6:30 p.m.

The family suggests memorials to the Marines Toys for Tots, which may be left at the funeral home.
