

HOWARD T. BURD*HACKETTSTOWN —

Howard T. Burd of 303 Lafayette St., 66-year-old excavator and paver, died Saturday at Hackettstown Community Hospital after a brief illness.

Born Feb. 26, 1908 in Hackettstown, Mr. Burd was a son of the late William and Nellie Keggan Burd. He had lived all his life in this area and was owner and operator of Howard Burd and Sons, excavators and paving contractors.

Services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at the Cochran Funeral Home by the Rev. George Pryce of the Hackettstown Baptist Church with interment in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

Survivors are his widow, Mrs. Mary Fredericks Burd; five sons, Howard Jr. of Hackettstown, Robert R. of East Brunswick, Robert and Roger, at home, and Michael Szidlowski of Jefferson Township; two brothers, William and Floyd, both of Hackettstown; two sisters, Mrs. Alice Crown and Mrs. Alberta Batson, both of Hackettstown; and 10 grandchildren.

Star-Gazette,
April 11, 1974

OBITUARY: Howard T. Burd
Date of Death,
April 6, 1974