

Clara Burdge

MANSFIELD TWP. — Clara Burdge, 92, formerly of Hackettstown, died Monday, March 30, in Warren Haven, the Warren County nursing home.

Born April 7, 1905, in Vienna, she was a daughter of the late George and Catherine Syfor. She lived in Warren Haven for four years.

She was employed as a dietary aide for the House of the Good Shepherd in Hackettstown for 16 years before retiring in 1985.

She was a former member of the Moose Lodge Ladies Auxiliary in Hackettstown.

Her husband, Harry Sr., died in 1975.

She is survived by two sons, Harry Jr. of Hackettstown and LeRoy of Easton, Pa.; a daughter, Ruth Dennis of Hackettstown; two brothers, Frank of Springdale and Robert of Easton; six sisters, Helen Burdge, Laura and Lillian Hemaneth, all of Hackettstown, Gladys Vanderhoof of Dover, Minnie of Highland, and Hilma Guyild of West Orange; six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

A sister, Irene Prather, died earlier.

Services were held in Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown. Burial was in Pequest Union Cemetery in Great Meadows.

THE STAR GAZETTE
April 9, 1998

OBITUARY: Clara Burdge
Date of death
March 30, 1998