

Harrie Burk

HACKETTSTOWN —

Funeral services will be held today from the Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown, to St. Mary's Church of the Assumption, Hackettstown, where a Liturgy of Christian Burial will be offered at 9:30 a.m. for Harrie R. Burk, 65, of 116 Liberty St., who died Sunday at Hackettstown Community Hospital following a long illness.

Mr. Burk was born in Bayonne. He has lived most of his life in the Hackettstown area.

For many years he was a welder in Hackettstown. In 1977 he retired as an office machine repairman for the Burk Office Equipment Co. on Main Street.

He was an Army veteran of World War II.

Mr. Burk is survived by his wife, Helen "Ted" Bunnell Burk; seven daughters, Mrs. Bonnie Segada of Mansfield, Mrs. Victoria Adama of Mount Olive, Mrs. Judy Cook of Morris, Mrs. Geri Amato and Miss Debbie Burk, both of Hackettstown, and Miss Jean Burk and Miss Jill Burk, both of Hopatcong; four brothers, Richard of Mansfield, James of Hackettstown, Thomas of Tranquility, and Edward of Pennsylvania; and seven grandchildren.

Interment will be in the Hackettstown Cemetery.

The Forum,
August 1, 1979.

OBITUARY: HARRIE R. Burk;
Date of Death, July 29, 1979.