

Jerome J. Butler

Servicing was held Saturday in Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown, followed by a Mass of Christian Burial in Our Lady of the Mountain Catholic Church, Schooley's Mountain, for Jerome J. Butler, 46, of 206 Plane St., Hackettstown, who died Thursday in Morristown Memorial Hospital.

Born in Bridgewater, Conn., he lived in Hackettstown for 15 years.

Mr. Butler was principal in the Roosevelt Elementary School, Roxbury, for the last six years. Prior to this, he served as assistant principal in the Roxbury Junior High School for five years.

A graduate of St. Francis College, Brooklyn, N.Y., he received his master's degree from Kean College, Union.

He was a member of Our Lady of the Mountain Catholic Church; the New Jersey Administrators Association; New Jersey Education Association; and Roxbury Education Association.

Surviving are his wife, JoAnn; a son, Michael, at home; three daughters, JoAnn, Christine and Bethann, all at home; his mother, Kathryn Butler of Brooklyn; three brothers, William of Phoenix, Ariz., Richard of Solon, Ohio and Robert of Englishtown; and Interment was in Our Lady of the Mountain parish cemetery.

From
The Forum,
March 25, 1981.

OBITUARY:
Jerome J. Butler,
Date of Death,
March 19, 1981