

Mary M. Cadmus

WAYNE, Pa. — Mary M. Cadmus, 69, formerly of Hackettstown, N.J., died Saturday at home following a long illness.

She was born in West Orange, N.J., and lived most of her life in Hackettstown before moving to Pennsylvania last year.

Mrs. Cadmus was a secretary for the West Morris Board of Education for 21 years before retiring in 1981.

She was a graduate of West Orange High School and Maryland College for Women.

She was a former member of Trinity United Methodist Church of Hackettstown and a member of Covenant Presbyterian Church, Malvern.

Mrs. Cadmus was a certified quilting teacher and was a member of the New Jersey Quilting Teachers Association; the National Quilting Association; the Pieces of Warren Chapter of the New Jersey Quilting Association; the Warren County (N.J.) Needle Arts Guild; the Hunterdon Patchwork and Quilting Guild; and Main Line Quilters.

Surviving are three sons, Michael P., Littleton, Colo., Spencer V. Jr., Rockford, Ill., and James M., Malvern; a daughter, Mary C., Malvern; a brother; and two grandchildren.

Her husband, Spencer V. Sr., died in 1984.

Arrangements are by Mauger Funeral Home, Malvern.

Daily Record
January 3, 1987

OBITUARY
Mary M. Cadmus.
Date of Death
January 3, 1987

Cat. No. 141457.16.12