

Ottillie Campbell

Ottillie Campbell, 83, of Independence Township, died May 17, at Hackettstown Community Hospital.

Born March 6, 1917 in Lubeck, Germany, she was a daughter of the late Johanna Kujal Moeller and the late Johann Moeller.

She lived in Brooklyn, N.Y., prior to moving to the area in 1955.

She was a quality control inspector with Area Lighting Research (currently employed, not retired).

She was a founding and currently an active member of the Independence Township First Aid Squad; Moravian Grange in Hope, Disco Seniors in Great Meadows, Warren County 4-H, and N.J. State First Aid Council.

Survivors include a daughter, Joan Wulf of Independence Township; a sister Johanna Fruh of Independence Township; a granddaughter, Christina Baummiller of Tannersville; and a grandson, Kevin Wulf of Columbia.

Services were held at Cochran Funeral Home, Inc. in Hackettstown.

Interment was in Pequest Union Cemetery in Great Meadows.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial donations to the Independence Township First Aid Squad, P.O. Box 173, Great Meadows, N.J. 07838.

Star Gazette
May 25, 2000
Ottillie Campbell
Date of Death
May 17, 2000