

OBITUARY

Randall R. Carswell, formerly of Hackettstown, passed away at his home on April 2, 2012. Randy lived for the last 25 years in Cape Coral, Fla. where he died at home surrounded by his family.

Randy grew up in Hackettstown and graduated from Hackettstown High in 1968. He was a cub scout and then a boy scout in Troop 150 in Hackettstown. Randy went into the Air Force directly out of high school and was in service for seven years. Randy moved back to Hackettstown in the mid-1970's and worked for Comet Ambulance Service in Hackensack until moving to Florida in 1987 where he was a Head Custodian in Fort Myers school system for over 20 years before his passing from cancer.

Randy is survived by his wife, Susan and six children, Randy, Kerrie, Brian, Erin, Kellie and Michael; 12 grandchildren and one grandchild on the way. Randy is also survived by his father, Robert Carswell, who is a resident of Warren County Nursing Home in Oxford and his sister, Gerri Huryk of Hackettstown.

There will be a church service at St. James Episcopal Church, 214 Washington St., Hackettstown at 11 a.m. on June 1 with internment to follow at Pequest Cemetery in Great Meadows.

Anyone attending the services is invited by the Carswell and Huryk families back to St. James Parish Hall for a luncheon directly after the internment.

The Warren Reporter: 18 May 2013

NAME: Carswell, Randall R.

DATE OF DEATH: 2 April 2013