

George Ceddia Jr.

George Ceddia Jr., 61, of Netcong, died Aug. 31 at his home, after a long illness.

Born in Netcong, Mr. Ceddia was a lifelong resident.

He had worked for the state of New Jersey as an armorer for the National Guard Armory in Hackettstown. He was a Korean War veteran, having served in the Army.

Mr. Ceddia was a former manager for the A&P in Parsippany and a co-owner of Ceddia's Luncheonette in Netcong.

He is survived by his wife Elizabeth Pepe Ceddia, at home; two sons, George P. III and Michael; two brothers, Michael and Anthony; two sisters, Angie Burbridge and Susan Cautero; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Sept. 3 from the Morgan Funeral Home, 31-33 Main St., Netcong, to an 8:30 a.m. Mass of Christian Burial at St. Michael's Roman Catholic, in Netcong. Interment was in Stanhope Union Cemetery, Stanhope.

Star Gazette
September 8, 1994
George Ceddia, Jr.
Date of Death
August 31, 1994