Anna M. Cerria

MOUNT OLIVE TWP. — Anna Margaret Cerria died Thursday at Dover General Hospital after a long illness. She was 51.

She was born in Weehawken, and resided in Guttenberg for many years before moving to Flanders 20 years ago.

Mrs. Cerria was a member and trustee of St. Jude's Church in Budd Lake, and taught Christian Confraternity Doctrine for nine years. She was a two-term president of the Flanders PTA, and was a former member of the Mount Olive FISH organization.

Mrs. Cerria is survived by her husband, Patrick; two sons, Patrick and Drew, and a daughter, Mary Margaret, all at home; a brother, Richard de Courey, Dumont; and a sister, Helen Kerry, Englewood Cliffs.

Arrangements are by Scala Memorial Home, 124 High St., Hackettstown.
