

CARRIE CHAMBERLAIN
HACKETTSTOWN —

Funeral services for Carrie A. Chamberlain, 80, of Greenview Gardens Apartments, were held Tuesday at Blairstown.

Mrs. Chamberlain died Saturday at Hackettstown Community Hospital after a brief illness.

Born in Oxford, she had lived in Blairstown 41 years before moving here seven years ago. She was retired as a fourth grade teacher in the Blairstown School.

She was a member of the Hackettstown Presbyterian Church and the Warren County Retired Teachers Association.

Mrs. Chamberlain was the widow of Roland Chamberlain. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Jean Zanetti of Hackettstown, and Mrs. Dori Bair of Columbia; a brother, Clifford Hochgesang of Syracuse, N.Y., and four grandchildren.

Services at the Newbaker Funeral Home, Blairstown, Tuesday morning were conducted by the Rev. John Criswell, pastor of Hackettstown First Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. L. Rodney Boaz of Newton Presbyterian Church.

Interment was in the Cedar Ridge Cemetery.

Star-Gazette,
February 9, 1978

Obituary;
Carrie Chamberlain,
Date of Death, January 4, 1978.