

Primo Chiesa

INDEPENDENCE TWP. — Primo Chiesa, Barkers Mill Road, died Friday from injuries sustained in an automobile accident. He was 75.

Born in Italy, Mr. Chiesa had lived here for 14 years, coming from the Bronx, N.J. Before retiring 13 years ago, he was a chef at Heath Village, Washington Township, Morris County.

He was an Army veteran of World War II and a member of Disabled American Veterans Post 10, Hackettstown.

World
War II

He was a member of the Mount Bethel Fire Department.

He is survived by his wife, Maria; a son, Bruno, Hackettstown; a daughter, Bianca Curcio, Howell; eight grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren.

Arrangements are by Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown.

Daily Record
April 11, 1982.

OBITUARY
Primo Chiesa
Date of Death
April 9, 1982