Perry King Clark

Perry King Clark, 77, of Hackettstown died on April 14 at Hackettstown Community Hospital.

Born in Columbus, Ohio, Mr. Clark was the son of the late Perry B. and Theresa King Clark. He had lived in Ohio, California and for the past three years in the Hackettstown area.

He retired as an insurance executive with Massachusetts Mutual. In California, he had a second career as a real estate salesman.

For the past three years, Mr. Clark was a volunteer at Hackettstown Community Hospital.

He was World War II Army veteran, having attained the rank of major. He served in the China-Burma-India theater of operations.

Mr. Clark was a graduate of Yale University and was a member of the Yale Whiffenpoof Club and of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

His son, Perry C. Clark, died in 1988.

Mr. Clark is survived by his wife of 51 years, Muriel Gaunt Clark, at home; two sons, Jeffrey K. of Blairstown and Bruce R. of Long Valley; and five grandchildren.

Memorial services were held on April 16 at 1:30 p.m., at the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown. Interment was private.

Memorial donations may be made in Mr. Clark's name to the Hackettstown Community Health Care Foundation, 651 Willow Grove St., Hackettstown, N.J. 07840.
