

OBITUARY

Jeanne A. Clauer

HACKETTSTOWN — Jeanne A. Clauer of Hackettstown died Friday, Dec. 29, 2006 in Green Township. She was 67.

Born June 14, 1939 in Newton, she was a daughter of the late Walter A. and Doris C. Nunn Boyd of Hackettstown.

Her husband, David Clauer of Tranquility, died earlier.

Before her retirement, she worked as a registered nurse at Newton Memorial Hospital, Newton, and at the House of Good Shepherd in Hackettstown. She was a graduate of Hackettstown High School and earned her LPN from Trinidad State Jr. College, and her RN and BSN from Regents College in New York. She also earned her Legal Nurse Certification from Warren County Community College.

She was an active volunteer at the Lord's Pantry, the food kitchen associated with the Trinity United Methodist Church, Hackettstown. She spent time there weekly. She utilized her contacts to have the pantry paperwork translated into Russian when she saw people struggling to communicate with each other. She was also generous in donating her time to the Meals at Home program, delivering meals to those who were in need to that assistance in the Hackettstown area.

She enjoyed reading, flowers, crocheting, music, her friends, her cats, and she loved to sing. She was an active member of the Sunshine Singers of Sussex County. She loved Ocean Grove, and spoke often of her trips there. She was an avid student of many diverse topics and had, most recently, discovered and took advantage of many online courses.

She was soft spoken, selfless, and always encouraging, organized to a fault and very kind. She will be greatly missed.

She is survived by a sister, Scottie Dawn Freeman of Hackettstown; a brother, Alan M. Boyd and his wife Cheryl of Flanders; and two sons, Andrew Clauer of Connecticut, and Henry Clauer of North Carolina.

A graveside service was held in the Tranquility Cemetery, Tranquility. The Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High Street, Hackettstown was in charge of the arrangements.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in her name to the Lord's Pantry at the Trinity United Methodist Church, Hackettstown, NJ 07840.

The Warren Reporter: January 19, 2007

NAME: Jeanne A. (Boyd) Clauer

DATE OF DEATH: December 29, 2006

The Express-Times: January 2, 2007

OVER