

JAMES CLAWSON

James Clawson, 67 years old, of Valentine street, died Thursday of last week in Warren Hospital, Phillipsburg, where he was admitted two weeks ago. For many years he was a molder at the American Sawmill molder at the American Sawmill Machinery Co.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Jennie Hopkins, of East Orange, and Mrs. Gertrude Shafer, of Hoboken, and two brothers, Alfred and Talmadge, both of Hackettstown.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at 11 o'clock at the Cochran Funeral Home, in charge of the Rev. Robert C. Lintner, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church and interment was in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

The Hackettstown Gazette: October 25, 1940

NAME: James Clawson

DATE OF DEATH: October 17, 1940