

OBITUARY

John George Cleary, 62, of Oak Hill Manor, Hackettstown R.D., died on Tuesday, September 12, 1972, at Warren Hospital in Phillipsburg after a brief illness. Services will be conducted Saturday at 10:30 a.m. at the Cochran Funeral Home in Hackettstown by the Rev. Thomas P. Armour of Gethesame Lutheran Church. Interment will be in Pequest Union Cemetery.

Viewings will be held today from 3 to 5 and 7 to 10 p.m. and tomorrow for the same hours.

Born on January 3, 1910, in Newark, Mr. Cleary was a son of the late John and Catherine Squire Cleary. He moved to this area about three years ago from Newark and was employed as a shipping clerk by U.S. Radium Company in Washington Township.

Surviving are his wife, the former Mary Opaoac; a stepson, Eugene Bauer of Hackettstown; a daughter, Mrs. Alberta Tavaska of Springfield, and five grandchildren.

The Star-Gazette: September 14, 1972

NAME: Cleary, John George

DATE OF DEATH: September 12, 1972