

MRS. MARGARET COCHRAN
HACKETTSTOWN

Funeral services will be held Friday for Mrs. Margaret Groff Cochran, 78, of 400 Sharp St., who died Tuesday at the House of the Good Shepherd, where she had been a guest 12 weeks.

Born April 6, 1896, in Washington, she was a daughter of the late J. DeWitt and Jennie Uhline Groff. She was the widow of Lloyd B. Cochran, who died in January, 1968.

She was the first woman physical education teacher in the Hackettstown public schools.

Mrs. Cochran was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, Hackettstown. She was also a member of the Priscilla Circle of the First Presbyterian Church, the Hackettstown Woman's Club and the Retired Teachers Association of New Jersey. She had lived in Hackettstown 50 years.

She is survived by a son, James L. of Hackettstown; a brother, James Groff of Upper Montclair; and two grandchildren.

Services will be at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the First Presbyterian Church, conducted by Rev. J. H. Criswell, pastor.

Friends may call from 7 to 9 p.m. today at the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St.

Interment will be in the family plot in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.
