

Aaron "Harry" Cohen

Aaron "Harry" Cohen, 63, of Independence Township, died at Hunterdon Medical Center in Flemington on March 5.

Born in Easton, Pa., he was the son of the late Raymond and Bertha Cohen. He had lived in Washington Township most of his life before moving to Independence Township 25 years ago.

Mr. Cohen had been a consultant for an apparel manufacturing company in Pennsylvania. Prior to that, he was a partner in Cohen's Department Store, Washington, a family business founded by his grandfather Harry Aaron Cohen. Mr. Cohen also had started his own retail chain.

He had been president of the Hackettstown Chamber of Commerce and was an Army veteran.

Mr. Cohen graduated from Blair Academy in 1949 and Brown University in 1953. He also attended the Wharton School of Business in Philadelphia, Pa.

He was a Boy Scouts leader in Independence. He was an avid bicyclist and hiker.

Mr. Cohen is survived by his wife, Carol Abramson Cohen, at home; a daughter, Deborah Lynn Cohen-Rosenberg of Chicago, Ill.; a son, Andrew Bruce of Hackettstown; and a brother, Murray of Roseland Heights, N.Y.

Funeral services were held at noon on March 8 at the Washington Jewish Community Center, Washington.

All arrangements were by the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown.

Memorial donations may be made to the Tourette Syndrome Association, P.O. Box 583, Hopatcong, N.J. 07843
