

OBITUARY

At Hackettstown, on the 21st ult., Sarah, wife of James F. Compton, of inflammation of the lungs, aged about 45 years. The deceased was for some time a worthy and useful member of the Presbyterian Church. Her disease came suddenly upon her, and she rapidly pined away, but death did not find her unprepared. She was waiting for the coming of the master, and relying upon an almighty Saviour, she peacefully breathed out her life into his hands. Her end was most composed and triumphant. These two deaths have left the head of a family alone and deeply afflicted. Having buried a mother and a wife, all his family, in a little more than two weeks.
