

OBITUARY

William T. Dalrymple

HACKETTSTOWN — William T. Dalrymple died Sunday, June 26, 2005, at Jersey City Medical Center. He was 54.

Born in Dover to the late Charles and Ruth (Decker), Mr. Dalrymple resided in Washington Borough prior to moving to Hackettstown eight years ago. He was a New Jersey state forest fire ranger working from the Forest Service in Franklin. An avid fisherman, Mr. Dalrymple also volunteered many hours off-duty with the forest fire service.

Survivors include his sister, Cheryl Gonroski of Budd Lake; a brother, Charlie of McAfee; an uncle, Howard J. of Kenvil; an aunt, Florence of Dover; and, two nephews and a niece.

Services and arrangements were by Leber-Lakeside Funeral Home, Landing. Interment was at North Hardyston Cemetery in Hardyston.

Those desiring to make a donation in loving memory may do so to their favorite charity.

The Warren Reporter: July 8, 2005

NAME: William T. Dalrymple

DATE OF DEATH: June 26, 2005