

Darcy Services

MANSFIELD TWP. — Graveside services for Bernard E. Darcy, O'Brien Road, were held today at St. John's Cemetery, Brooklyn, N.Y.

Mr. Darcy died yesterday at his home after a long illness. He was 81.

Born in Brooklyn, he had lived here since 1954. He was a retired self-employed sales engineer. During World War I, he served with the U.S. Army.

World
War I

He was a member of the Disabled Veterans, Mansfield.

Surviving are his wife, Myrtle; a son, James, Newport, Vt.; a daughter, Lynne, and a sister, Natalie Darcy, both of New York City.

Arrangements were made by the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackensack, N.J.

From;
The Record
July 2, 1981

OBITUARY; Bernard Darcy.
Date of Death,
July 1, 1981