

OBITUARY

James B. Darcy

James B. Darcy, 49, of Newport, Vt., died March 31.

Born in Queens, N.Y., he was the son of Bernard and Myrtle Warner Darcy. He had been a Hackettstown resident before moving to Vermont.

He was a skilled mason and had worked for several construction companies.

Mr. Darcy was a Vietnam veteran, having served with the Navy.

He was a member of the Workers Union Local 1, New York. He also was a member of the American Legion Post No. 21 and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Lyndonville, Vt.

He a graduate of Hackettstown High School.

He is survived by his wife, Carolyn Darcy, at home; his sister, Lynn Darcy of New York City; and his mother, Myrtle Darcy of Hackettstown.

A memorial service was held on April 2 at 11 a.m. in the memorial chapel of the Curtis-Birch Funeral Home, 5 Bay St., Newport, Vt.

Memorial donations may be made in Mr. Darcy's name to the American Cancer Society, c/o Mrs. Roland Raymond, North Country Hospital, Prouty Drive, Newport, Vt., 05855, or to The Hospice, The Orleans and Northern-Essex Home Health Agency, 3 Lakemont Road, Newport, Vt., 05855.

The Star-Gazette: April 7, 1994

NAME: James B. Darcy

DATE OF DEATH: March 31, 1994